Paulette Ann Boutin was born on December 7, 1961, in Lafayette, Louisiana, and she was a resident of Abbeville. Ann's family was the center of her world. She loved going to watch her grandson play baseball, and always brought each grandchild their own bag of candy- no sharing needed! Ann enjoyed her daily phone calls with her siblings. She loved having company over and cooking for them. Ann had numerous nieces and nephews and adored them all, along with their children! She also loved her music. She always had a radio on! Ann didn't need much in life. As long as she had her family her heart was full. To know and be loved by Ann was to know pure love. On days you are missing Ann crank up the radio, start cooking, and know she is watching over those she loved.

Ann is survived by her son, Aaron Boutin and his wife, Nekole of Kaplan; her grandchildren, Everett, Louella, and Elodie; her siblings, Willis Boutin and his wife, Patty of Erath, Charlotte Bourque and her husband, Don of Meaux, Joseph Boutin and his wife, Gelaine of Kaplan, and Keri Alhashash and her husband, Abdell of Springhill.

She was preceded in death, by her parents, Murphy Boutin, Sr., and Cecile Louella Boutin; her brother, Murphy Boutin, Jr.; as well as her grandparents, Gaston and Elodie Landry, Maurice and Alozia R. Boutin.

“ How can I find the words to say to tell you of how I miss you. Throughout the day I miss our chats. And how you'd always cheer me up whenever you would phone. Living life without you is going to be very hard. I'd give all I have to waken and to see your phone call
