Randy was born on October 31, 1959 in Lafayette, Louisiana and he was lifelong resident of the Milton and Youngsville area. He worked as a Sand blaster and Painter in the Oilfield. In his spare time, he enjoyed fishing, riding his motorcycle and building his Cedar Wood Electrified Benches. Randy loved keeping his truck clean, he washed it every day rather it needed it or not. He had a great sense of humor and was always the life of the party. His nick name was "Live Action" aka "Kubunka". More than anything Randy was a father and a grandfather; he cherished the time he spent with his two daughters and his grandchildren. He is gone but not forgotten, Randy will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Olise and Elvie Courville, and Marcil and Ezar Cormier; his nephews, Colby James Courville, and Anthony "TJ" Sonnier; his son in law, Dekeithon "KEKE" Dugas; his brother-in-law, Tony Sonnier; and his beloved Pit-Bull named "Dolja".
