

Reagan De'Naye Elizabeth LeBert

May 13, 2008 - June 7, 2025

Lafayette -

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, June 11, 2025 at 12:00 PM at Our Savior's Church in Lafayette for Reagan De'Naye Elizabeth LeBert, age 17, who passed away on Saturday, June 7, 2025.

Pastor Lance Key will officiate.

Visitation will be held on Wednesday, June 11, 2025 from 10:00 AM until time of service at Our Savior's Church in Lafayette.

Reagan was born on May 13, 2008 in Lafayette and she was a lifelong resident of Lafayette. She was a student at Acadiana High School and led a very active life. Reagan was in the junior explorer program for Acadian Ambulance, an active member of the youth service at Our Savior's Church, and she loved to skateboard in her spare time. She had a burning passion for art and poetry that fed into her love for music. Reagan always had to make sure that her lashes were on point, and never left the house without the proper look. Most importantly, she loved spending time with her family, especially when she was taking care of her baby cousins. Reagan will be deeply missed by her friends, family, and her community.

Reagan is survived by her mother, Savanna Gautreaux (Henry Allday) of Lafayette; her siblings, McKenzie LeBert, Adalynn Davis, Whitley Allday, and Hunter LeBert; her grandparents, Rebecca Gautreaux of Lafayette, James and Sunoak LeBert, and Brenda Allday of Gonzalez; her great-grandparents, Joseph and Mary Ellen Gautreaux of Opelousas; her aunts, Shanon Gary (Justin) "Nanny & Parrain", Scarlet Abshire (Jonathan), and Nikki LeBert; her uncles, Seth Gautreaux and Sean Gautreaux; her great aunt, Karin Gautreaux and her boys; Alida Gautreaux and her son; her honorary aunts, Melissa Potier and Courteney Kilgore; and a host of beloved cousins, friends, and extended family members.

She was preceded in death by her father Hwan James LeBert; her great-grandmother, Gloria Ann Landry; her uncle, Stephen Jude Gautreaux; as well as her cousin, Silas James Gautreaux.

Honored to serve as pallbearers: Seth Gautreaux, Sean Gautreaux, Justin Gary, Adison Gary, Jace Gary, Hunter LeBert, Landon Ortego, and Braydon Ortego.

The family wishes to extend a special thanks to her doctors, nurses, and counselors at The Maples in Baton Rouge, Abbeville Community Health Center, as well as Donald and Chandra Conner for the loving care and support they offered her and her family in their time of need.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.

“ My angel. She could make a room light up in a millisecond, she could tell if I was sad or upset and made sure to change that. She poured so much into other people, and she was always willing to help. I love her so much and I miss her more than ever. I hope she’s found peace. And I wish I could’ve told her how much she meant not only to me but to everyone else. Rest easy my love

“ I was in the hospital with reagan 3 years ago. The place was horrible but she made things easier for both of us. She was always so happy and making jokes. Once we got out we became friends on Snapchat and would text here and there. She was so happy for me when i had my baby and got my first house. She was so bright.

“ I remember when I first really met you in middle school, you were one of my closest friends and I was lucky to see you again in high school for a short time before you left LHS. I wish I would've talked to you more than what feels like such a short amount of time. You truly were a wonderful friend and a very kind person. Fly high Reagan, I'll look for you in every beautiful sky.

“ I don't where to start. When high school started I was nervous and you were the first person to walk up to me. P.E was our favorite class together. And out lunch spot. Then you moved and we went to summer school together sophomore year and had the same class we were so happy and lord let's not forget your lashes had to be perfect and you would fix mine.. then our junior year/this year we had summer school together again we were so happy to see each other. Everyday going talk to you at lunch. We were making plans to hangout soon. I love you beautiful and I'm gonna miss you so much. Rest easy my girl💕🕊
