

Remig "Remy" Edward Laterrade, Jr.

August 1, 1951 - June 17, 2024

Lafayette -

Remig "Remy" Edward Laterrade, Jr., age 72, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, June 18, 2024, in Lafayette.

Remig "Remy" Edward Laterrade, Jr. was born on August 1, 1951, in New Orleans and he was a longtime resident of Lafayette. He loved to sing, cook, and entertain. Remy was a jack of all trades. In his 73 years of life, he was a mechanic, a body and fender repair man, award winning life insurance salesman, sold beauty supplies, became a full time chef winning many awards and wrote a cookbook titled, "I Want 'Dat Cajun Cookbook". When thinking of Remy, one can always remember the smell of jambalaya, the notes to a random song, and diet cokes. He ran a karaoke show for two decades, and ran the pro shop at Acadiana Lanes for a decade while becoming a bronze and silver USBC certified bowling coach. Remy recently retired and began learning woodworking. He strived everyday to be better than he was the day before. Remy would want others to know that life doesn't always turn out the way you expect, and that healing of lifelong hurts can still come through, even at the end. He will be dearly missed.

Remy is survived by his children, Remy A. Laterrade and Mallory L. Laterrade; his grandchildren, Gabriel J. Miller and Jonah R. Laterrade; his sister, Susan Ayo; as well as his former spouse of 20 years and mother of his children, Jacquelyn Brown.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Audrey D'alessandro Laterrade and Remig Edward Laterrade, Sr.; as well as his sister, Diane Maes.

The family wishes to offer a special thank you to everyone who loved Remig "Remy" Edward Laterrade, Jr., even when he made it hard sometimes.

“ What can say about Remy. He was a good friend. He encouraged everyone to at least try to sing at karaoke. He was funny, silly, always had a smile. And he loved and lived life to the fullest.

We hadn't seen him too often, especially after the Bike Barn days, but when we ran into old friends, we would ask about him.

We still talk about all the great times we had singing at the Barn.

And when we pass the empty lot where the Bike Barn was, it reminds us of him all over again

Mallory, I was lucky to meet you when you would come. Now me and Sammy are so sad to hear about his passing. I know this post comes months too late, but we wanted you to know how sorry we are for your loss. He was a very special friend.

Rest in Peace 🙏❤️

“ You have gone to a better place Remy but I'm going to miss the counsel of an old friend. 44 years of memories. After a rough childhood, you found Christ's Holy Spirit to bring you to love. Multi-talented, great sense of humor that gilded a high intellect, we lived and learned together. You can now be in God's merciful peace.
