“ I have many childhood memories with Mr Rick. I was lucky enough to grow up in the same neighborhood as he raised his family. His daughter Angel and were best friends growing up and still are. I remember walking into their house while he was cheering on (and screaming at) his favorite football teams. Angel would tell me, “Don’t worry, he’s just watching football.”

My husband and I were just talking about him a week ago. I told him, “I love that man, I miss him.” I continued by describing him as this tough guy, but he always gave us our way as kids. One of my fondest memories are of a vacation he allowed me to join his family on, to Kentucky. We all went on a horseback ride through the woods with beautiful scenery. I can remember looking down off the side of the mountain and being nervous, but loving it at the same time. Angel and I wanted to do it over and over again. We would be nervous to keep asking him, but every time we asked he let us go again. We must have done that horseback ride three or four times. I can go on and on with memories of Mr Rick and his family. I am truly blessed to have had him as a part of my life. He will be dearly missed.

“ Richard is truly a righteous man who has helped shape and strengthen my faith in our Lord. In a 3 minute testimony his words would: rip through a facade I'd built; sooth and comfort; give hope of the Lord's blessings. On my path to the Lord, he has been an oasis of rest filled with restorative water of life. I am deeply in sorrow for my loss, yet joyous for him at God's table, free of pain in body, and soul. Singing God's praise as he did in life. "Jesus loves him and so do i" You helped define for me my Salvation.
