“ I grew up knowing Sandra through Mr. Will's store. She was such a quiet person, always kind to me. She was often seen walking around the neighborhood for exercise and always gave a little wave hello. May she rest in peace. Sending my love and condolences to Anita and the rest of the Broussard family...❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️

“ A part of growing up Sandra was in my life since I was born. She's the big sister to my oldest friend, my co-worker at University Medical Center and later an occasional baby sitter for my two children. I feel blessed to have prayed with her the morning of her death and now wish that Our Lord take her soul to heaven.

Anita, I am so sorry to hear of Sandra's passing. I am in Europe on vacation and regret I will not make her funeral . I will never forget how thoughtful she was to Momma. On her daily walks she would bring Mom her mail and newspaper. That was so thoughtful of her. May she rest in peace.
