“ Shane,

Where do I start? You used to think that we would never be friends, but boy were you wrong! Over the past couple of years, you've become more than a friend-you became family. On most of your days off, we'd be together and it didn't matter what we were doing: whether we were going to the Jesus Store/dollar store/gas station, or working on different projects at either of our houses-WE WERE TOGETHER! We talked about so many things, like when you worked with Red & his dad at the Parish, or your different collections of video game consoles and jewelry, but especially your children... always your children and Godchildren... they were absolutely your pride and joy. You were almost always the first person to offer someone help and you would have given anyone the shirt off your back. You always saw the best in people and gave everyone the benefit of the doubt. A lot of times you sacrificed yourself for the sake of others. You ALWAYS told me that you loved me each and every time we parted ways, and I'll never forget that. You had one of the best, goofy laughs I have ever heard and I miss it. I miss you. And just like you said the other day, "I love you and I'll see you in the next lifetime". You're greatly loved and missed by all of us. Thank you for being our friend, Shane. We will never forget you.

Love, Lauren, Red and Cody
