Wes was born on February 24, 1943 in San Jose, Costa Rica, and he was a longtime resident of Lafayette. He was a Marine Corps Sergeant and a Vietnam Veteran. Wes lived a fulfilled life—he was a mountain climber, a sports coach, a boy scout leader, and also volunteered a lot of his time to various organizations, including Habitat for Humanity, Christian ministries, and those involving help for the homeless. He was an honorable man, one of the best. Wes was a GREAT and adored dad and grandfather. He was highly dedicated and supportive, hardly ever missing a family event. He was active in his sons' and grandchildren's lives. He genuinely loved meeting people and uplifting those around him. Wes' positive nature didn't have boundaries. His family and many others will forever miss him.

Wes is survived by his loving wife of 25 years, Elizabeth Lagneaux Headington; his children, Edward Headington (Kara) of Jennings and Kenneth W Headington (Brynn) of Denver, CO; his grandchildren, Noa, Ryker, Wesley, Vincent, Sasha, and Kenneth Headington; as well as his brother, Charles Headington (Deborah) of Greensboro, NC.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Leon and Ann Headington; as well as his siblings, Vincent Headington and Cynthia Verzi.

The family wished to extend a heartfelt thank you to the doctors and staff at Ochsner Lafayette General for their compassion and care in his final days.

In lieu of flowers, the family asked that donation may be made to the Salvation Army or Habitat for Humanity in memory of Wes, or consider volunteering your time in his honor.

“ Mr Wes was the brightest part of my workday at the gym. He was kind, compassionate, supportive, and my daily cheerleader! He would thank me every time I would clean the equipment. I will miss him so much and I hope I never forget his voice saying, "way to go Christie!"
Heaven gained a beautiful soul.
The gym will never be as bright without him.
He was loved by many.
