“ To the people that loved Terrell, he is missed everyday by all who knew him. He lived his life the way he wanted. He always wanted to help people before thinking of himself. He had a kind heart and a beautiful soul. At times there were so many people that judged him, but did not know him. For the people who did not know him, they had no right to judge him. Remember, noone has the right to judge anyone else. God is the only judge among man!! Always in our memories, dreams,souls and hearts. Love Always, Shelia Hauser

“ Terrell was such a kind person. He made so many friends and had so many friends. He was a cook, a shopand mechanic, and a jack of all trades. Noone can forget he was he richest man of all with his heart of gold, He will remain my son and forever in my heart . He will be sadly missed by his nephew, Stefin, his stepfather Fred and his mother Shelia Hauser. Rest in peace my son. We love you.

“ There is not a moment in the day that I don't think of you. I sometimes feel as if I'm not going to be able to go on with my life without you but I know you would want me to fight through this and get my life back in order. I never wanted to imagine this feeling of being without you because just imagining it scared the hell out of me and hurt more than anything and now I am actually dealing with it and it's not at all how I wanted to be feeling. I have spent every day with you for as long as I can remember ,we have had our ups and definitely our downs but through it all we had love and each other. There was no one else I would of rather of gone through the last few months with than you. Despite what everyone said we fought through the bad times to what I can honestly say were amazing times most recently with us. You were finally showing me the man I always knew you could be and just when I was beginning to love you more and more everyday this happens. I often wish it was me because you always meant the world to me and I believe in you so much. I also think what could I have done differently that night that way you would still be by my side but no matter how many times I do that it won't bring you back. So for now it's one day at a time for me because the absence of you in my life is like I lost my life too. Terrell Brandon you were a special type of person and one I believe was meant to be with me as time went on, I love you so much and I always will. I won't forget you even not even for a second. Until we meet again my love please know I love you very much ❤️
