Terry Clyde Majors was born on November 28th, 1946, in Birmingham, Alabama and was a longtime resident of Lafayette. He was a beloved father, grandfather, great-grandfather and brother. His passing will be mourned and his memory will be cherished. Terry was a fast friend to anyone who crossed his path, a telling fact for a native of Birmingham and proud Alabama fan who has called Louisiana his home for more than 25 years. He was a true gentleman of the South, who made life better for those around him with his quick wit, good humor and a riveting anecdote for every occasion. Terry was a proud United States Marine who loved his God and his country, loved to make a deal and a doting father who loved to brag on his children and grandchildren any chance he got. He will be missed by many; may the sadness of his absence be tempered by the joy in remembering his presence.

Luke 23:43 – And he said to him, “Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”

Terry is survived by the love of his life and wife of 55 years, Stephanie Farrow Majors; his sons, Terry M. Majors and his wife, Torrie, and Dr. Corey S. Majors and his wife, Erica; his daughter, Jacqueline Majors Lapeyrolerie and her husband, Bennett; his grandchildren, Abby Majors, Gabrielle Kondert, Alexandra Majors, Trevor Majors, Madison Majors, Mary Michael Majors, and Peyton Majors; his great-grandchild, Gracie Forsythe; as well as his siblings, Iladean Majors, Clarence Majors, and Ray Majors.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert B. and Sarah Levie Majors; as well as his brother, Robert B. Majors, Jr.

The family wishes to extend a very special and heartfelt thank you to Dr. Ziad M. Ashkar for his care and compassion over the past year. When others gave up, Dr. Ziad was always there to give hope and lift Terry's spirits.

“ Growing up in Inglenook with good neighbors and great friends was awesome.. Terry was both. We had some good times and some serious times. Terry was a good friend, a good man and a good Marine. It makes me sad that he is gone from this life but glad that I can call him my friend since we were teenager's. Terry, myself and Joe Boartfield, for some crazy reason, all joined the Marine Corps and went to Parris Island together in 1966 and grew that special bond that Marines seem to have. Terry and Joe have gone now so Semper Fidelis my brothers, rest in peace.

“ Terry has been a best friend of ours for 52 years and he will be greatly missed. It would be impossible to share just one favorite memory as there are so many of them. He was a kind and caring person and always there when you needed him. He could be larger than life with his wit, humor and quick smile.

RIP Terry.

“ I've always thought of Terry as a really good man. He was always fun to be around with his sarcastically funny ways. He will be sadly missed. His candle burnt out far to soon
