Tom, known by his family and close friends as Tommy, lived for his athletic lifestyle. He was a successful athlete at home in Dublin, Ireland before accepting a scholarship to the University of Southwest Louisiana, known today as "ULL".

Tommy Hopkins went on to become a legend in Louisiana's running community. He made his mark very early in Acadiana as a distance runner for the "USL". He immediately became an integral part of the "USL" Cross-Country team. Identified as "the Irishman" in the 1967 yearbook, he was a member of the team during its three consecutive years as the Gulf Coast Conference champions. He continued to improve his running skills while at the university placing 4th in the conference championship in 1966, and 2nd in the 1967 games. By 1968, as the team captain for the 14th Annual Gulf Coast Conference meet, Tommy set the pace and he captured first place over 25 conference rivals ensuring "USL" dominance over the conference for the 3rd consecutive year. In 1970, Tommy continued to astound the running community by setting a record in the distance medley and placing 1st in the "Three Mile Run". His exceptional running abilities coupled with his easy going demeanor which he displayed during his years at "USL" made him an excellent coach and mentor for many future generations of runners in Southwest Louisiana.

Aside from running Tommy also enjoyed the game of golf and in 1975, he won the Golf Championship at Muni.

After college Tommy went on to work for many years as a Landman in the Oil & Gas industry. He looked forward to returning home to Ireland each year to visit with his family. Tommy will be dearly missed by his family and friends here in Louisiana and abroad. His memories will be cherished forever.

Tommy is survived by his loving daughter, Anika Hopkins Cormier (Morris); his grandchildren, Rilee Cormier, and Tanner Cormier; his siblings, Nuala Johns (Bernard), Geraldine Raia, Emily Dowling (Michael), Marie Fleming (James), Desmond Hopkins (Marie), Catherine O'Byrne; as well as his twenty-two nieces and nephews, and many cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Thomas Hopkins and Anne Marie Hopkins; as well as his brother James Hopkins.

Honored to serve as pallbearers: Morris Cormier, Russell McKay, Desmond O'Connor, Claude Revels, Manny Rachal, and Jim Gonsulin. Tanner Cormier will carry the Crucifix.

Tom's family would like to issue a special thank you to all of his very good friends that have reached out to the family and have continued to show their support for throughout this difficult time.

“ I trained as an athlete with Tommy at Donore Harriers which was based at that time at Islandbridge in Dublin. He was an excellent runner and very tough to keep up with in training. My father Comdt. John Naughten assisted Tommy with the completion of his financial financial aid forms which were quite complex having done the same for me to go to Boston University. I have many happy memories of our times together and his tongue in cheek sense of humour. May he rest in peace.

“ When Tom first came to then-USL in the fall of 1967, we (his track teammates) thought he was incredibly shy because he said very little. Looking back on it, I think he was having a "wee bit of culture shock" as he would likely have put it in his Irish brogue, coming to a school 4,000 miles from his home and family. He didn't stay quiet long as his natural gregariousness came to the fore. He was a fierce competitor, great teammate and a friend to all. RIP, Hop.

“ In 1975 I was a high school runner that showed enough promise that my coach, Harold Tridico, asked Tom to help me to achieve my potential. I was also struggling with learning to live with epilepsy, having had grand mal seizures since I was 13. Tom coached me to two state championships, but what he did for me was not to help me win races. He showed me what was possible for a person like me at a time when I could not imagine a normal or successful life. Now, I cannot image what that life would have been had Tom not been a part of it. Rest in peace, Tom.
