

Thomas Christopher "Chris" McManus

April 4, 1960 - September 7, 2025

Youngsville -

A private memorial service will be held at a later date at St. Anne's Mausoleum for Thomas Christopher "Chris" McManus, age 65. Deacon Robert Klingman of Holy Cross will be the officiant.

Chris passed away at his residence on Sunday, September 7, 2025. Chris was born in Beaumont, Texas on April 4, 1960 and later moved to Lafayette where he graduated from Comeaux High School. He resided in Youngsville for most of his life. As a child, he loved building model airplanes, especially WWII allied planes. Chris was a lover of life, good food, and family. One of his favorite things to do was to barbecue with his family and friends as well as watching the Saints. Chris loved reading. Some of his favorite authors include Dean Koontz and Stephen King. His love of Sci-Fi and fiction translated to not only books, but to tv shows and movies as well; Star Trek was a favorite of his, with his favorite character being Spock. He was always willing to share a story or two with people he loved.

Chris is survived by the "love of his life", his beloved wife of 34 years Cheri "Sissy" Philliber McManus; his son, Thomas Alan McManus; his brother, Robert Lee McManus Jr. (Pam); his sister, Vickie Faye McManus Maloney (Richard); and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Robert Lee McManus Sr. and Dora Faye Hayes McManus; his stepfather, Glenn Berry; his sister, Donna Claire McManus Williams; Jennifer Ann McManus Dugas; and one very special angel niece, Crystal Faye Maloney.

The family would also like to thank the following: NSI Hospice of Acadiana and especially Chris' nurses Wendy and Lacey. They showed so much love and concern for Chris and his family during his fight with cancer. Edgar Guidry and Mrs. Tamara Whales, they helped guide the family through this difficult journey of a year and a half.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Cypress Funeral Home & Crematory, 206 W. Lafayette St., Maurice, LA 70555.
