Vicki Lynn Jones was born on November 7, 1960 in Rapides Parish and she was a life long resident of Lafayette, Louisiana. She will be remembered as a strong, independent, and caring woman. Vicki always offered a helping hand to those who were in need. Her house was a welcome place during the holidays, not only for her family, but also for all who where hungry. She had a very big heart, and she had lots of love to give. Vicki was a great listener, she was always available to lend an ear and to talk with those she loved. She was a mother of 4 children, who regarded her not only as their mother, but also as their best friend. Along with her children Vicki was also a devoted grandmother and she cherished the time that she spent with both her children and grandchildren. In her spare time she enjoyed Fishing with her son David, spending time at the beach with her family, as well as listening to music. Vicki will be dearly missed and her memories will be cherished forever.

Vicki is survived by her children, Sonya Trahan (Troy) of Lafayette, David Domingue (Tasha) of Lafayette, and Mandy Domingue of Lafayette; her 12 grandchildren and 1 great grandchild; her father, Frank M. Jones, Jr.; as well as her siblings, Alicia Ferney of Lafayette, Charlotte Menard of Lafayette, Herman Ray Jones of Lafayette, Kristina Dugas of Texas, and Angela Simon of Broussard.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Patricia Padgett Jones; and her daughter, Racheal Domingue.

The family wishes to offer a special Thank You to the Nurses, Doctors and Staff of Hospice Compassus for the loving care and compassion they provided to Vicki during her time of need.

“ Our mother was a beautiful woman both inside and out. When she spoke everyone listened and when she smiled it would light up a room . There are so many beautiful things I can say about mom but greatest of all was her beautiful soul she cared for many even when they did not deserve it she gave her all . Mom is at peace now and knowing this gives us strength to carry on each and every day knowing we will see her in heaven one day. Until that say mom be at peace with Racheal and all the loved ones that you have so dearly missed. Love always, Mandy, Sonya, David

My sweet Sister-In-Law Vicki was married to my Brother. We go so far back Its been 50+ years. She was so caring, funny, gentle, full of life, had a beautiful spirit and I loved her dearly. She has done her suffering here on Earth and is now truly home. She raised some wonderful children who took care of their Mother till her last breath. She's having a Reunion with her Grandmother Ms Padgett, Her Mother, Her child Racheal, My Brother David and so many more people. You deserve your place in Heaven and can rest now. Love you my Sister.
