

Vickie Lynn O'Neal

January 11, 1957 - March 25, 2023

Duson -

A Celebration of Life will be held on Thursday, March 30, 2023, from 1:00 pm until 5:00 pm at Cypress Funeral Home in Maurice for Vickie Lynn O'Neal, age 66, who passed away peacefully at her residence on Saturday, March 25, 2023, in Duson.

Vickie Lynn O'Neal was born on January 11, 1957, in Hobbs, New Mexico and she was a longtime resident of Duson. Whether your meeting was brief, or you had known her for years, Vickie left an impression on you. She made everyone she met feel loved and accepted, because they were. She was fiercely protective of her daughters, with whom she had undeniably close relationships with. Her grandchildren were her world and she was a constant companion to her husband, whom she loved very much. She had an endless passion for knowledge, and was an avid gardener and artist, mostly oil painting. Vickie had an overwhelming love for animals – her dogs Donnie & Hobbs, her parrots, Cere & Beaks, and her tortoise, Flip will mourn the loss of their “momma” just as we do. Vickie never asked for anything and she never put herself first. She simply gave all she could, which made her happier than collecting possessions. Her loss will impact the lives of many, just as her presence did.

Vickie is survived by her husband of 27 years, Kenny R. O'Neal; her children, Aimee Robinson (Jeremy Kyle), Chloe Abbott (Russell), and Sarah Lowe (Heather); her step-children, Shane O'Neal (Chrystal Lee) and Trisha Ketchum (Joshua); her mother, Mary Ann Ramsey; as well as her siblings, Michael Ramsey (Anne) and Holley Ramsey.

She was preceded in death by her father, Mitchell Ramsey; her maternal grandparents, Dewey and Chloe Barton; as well as her paternal grandparents, Lula and Mitchell Ramsey, Sr.

The family wishes to offer a heartfelt thank you to Dr. Richard Hines; as well as the doctors, nurses, and staff at Heart of Hospice for the care and compassion they offered Vickie and her family during her time of need.

In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made in memory of Vickie Lynn O'Neal to The Clarity Foundation, www.clarityfoundation.org, Ovarian Cancer Research Alliance, www.ocrahope.org, and National Ovarian Cancer Coalition, www.ovarian.org.

“ How does one put into words what a mother means? I just don't have the words to express my heartache. My mother was the light in my life. I will never be the same.

I have so many wonderful memories of my mom but my favorites are the days that my sister's and I showed up at her house for lunch without knowing the others were doing the same. We would get so excited for the surprise lunch party.

I love you momma

“ My best memory of Vickie is when we were younger. We lived in Dodge City, Kansas for a summer. There was an Olympic sized community pool with a large park across the street. We were walking home from swimming one day and became scared someone was after us. We took off running across the park grass. We got about 10 feet of the 200 feet we needed to cross, when we realized the entire park was covered in stickers. We laid down our beach towels, one after the other, walking across them to get home. We still had to stop every few minutes to pick stickers out of our feet. I can't remember what Mom said about the towels full of stickers, but I am sure she was not thrilled.

Rest in Peace, Vickie

“ I remember the first time I met mama Vicki, which I’ve known Sarah & Chloe since middle school but hadn’t personally met their mom, but I was out with Heather (Sarah’s wife...& my best friend) and Sarah & her mom was at the mall in Lafayette....so we went meet them and was introduced and she just welcomed me like she’s known me forever. We all went inside and ate Chick-fil-A... we all talked and clowned a bit and I remember walking to the vehicle I told fren(heather), “ that is the cutest lil ole lady I’ve ever seen.” At that point fren is like ohhhhhh I’m telling her and I’m like noooo, we’re both laughing... she does tell her and now they all laughing at me because I just wanna hide in a pothole in the parking lot... just know she is missed terribly... the only peace I feel with her gone is knowing she is no longer in pain.. 💔 someone with greater power decided she was too good for earth and took her home❤️❤️ to everyone who knew her, to her family, friends, her 3 girls & grandkids, I’m so sorry for your loss ...I pray for you all to find peace in knowing she is no longer suffering, but her presence will always be around you❤️❤️

“ I remember the first day I met you I was nervous because I had heard so many good things about you and although I am good person as well, I know that I can be a bit much. You took me, my kids and the rest of my family in right away and loved us unconditionally. My kids, my mom, my siblings and the rest of my family love you so much. Every time I heard your name, it would always be followed with, “she is such a sweet lady.” I have nothing but great memories with you. I am so thankful to have the time that I had with you. I wish we could’ve had more and I’m sure we will but I do understand that God didn’t want such a great human being left on this earth to live through the struggles we have here. God wanted you happy again. He wanted to take your pain, worries, and all of the struggles you dealt with, away. So, he brought you home to an everlasting life full of everything you deserve. I miss you, already. I’d give anything to get one of those motivational text from you or just the random text you would send just to say “I love you.” I miss sending you pictures of my artwork and you replying with the most genuine love for it. We will meet again! In the meantime, I promised you that I would take care of your daughter and I stand by that for the rest of my life. I love you, mamma Vickie. I hope you and Grandma behave up there and hold a spot for us. Rest in peace, beautiful.

“ To pick one memory of mother to post here would be impossible. I have a lifetime of moments that I will treasure forever. I hope she knew she was my best friend, I hope she knew that everything great in me came from her. I love you mamma.
