

Virginia Broussard Louviere

November 8, 1976 - September 6, 2022

Lafayette -

Virginia Broussard Louviere, age 45, passed away on Tuesday, September 6, 2022, in Duson, Louisiana.

Memorial Services will be held at a later date.

Virginia Kay Caison was born on November 8, 1976, in Wilmington, North Carolina and she was a long-time resident of Acadiana. She was a graduate of Breaux Bridge Highschool Class of 1994, and she went on to study nursing, earning a degree as a Registered Nurse. In her spare time, she enjoyed playing pool and being involved with local pool leagues. She also loved music and going fishing with her family. Virginia was also an animal lover, she had dogs, cats, and chickens galore, and she loved each and every one of them. More than anything else Virginia was a mother and a grandmother, and she cherished spending time with her children and her granddaughter. She will be remembered as a beloved wife, daughter, mother, and grandmother. Virginia will be dearly missed by her family and friends.

Virginia is survived by her loving husband, Chase Noah Louviere of Scott; her children, Christopher Castille, Savin Castille, Adrian Shinn, Dakota Shinn, and Shyanne Shinn; her granddaughter, Izabella Shinn; her parents, Shelton

Caison of North Carolina, and Tawnya Clark of Mississippi; as well as her dear friends, David Castille and Katelyn Babineaux.

She was preceded in death by her Maternal and Paternal Grandparents.

“ I was very saddened when I heard what happened. We've had a long history and while we haven't stayed in touch very much through the years there's an absence in my heart to know I'll not get a chance to say hi to you again. You will be missed, my friend.
