“ I'm so saddened to hear of Mr. Wayne's passing. I have so many great memories of him from all those times spent at the house during high school with Deidra. So many late nights hanging around the kitchen table filled with laughter and an unlimited amount of coffee! I loved spending time talking about his paintings while in his art room. What a great sense of humor - and a carefree attitude Wayne had - he was an amazing human being. He will be greatly missed - one of the kindest souls I've ever met.

“ To my Favorite Older brother, you will be greatly missed. I will miss your laughter and your humor. I will miss seeing you at the barbecue pit, because you know you were the barbecue master of the family. A cup of coffee in one hand and working the barbecue pit with the other. Not a care in the world, because barbecuing takes a long time and so did you.

Your journey with us is over, but for you it has just begun. Enjoy the rest of your new journey, Just don't drink too much coffee.

Love always, Gail

“ I remember when the teacher at school came up to me and said your brother has broken his leg. My first thought was which brother? Well, it didn't take long for me to find out. It was Wayne. And it didn't take me long to figure out that if I told him something he didn't like there wasn't a whole lot he could do to me. He was on crutches and he couldn't move fast. I even got away with hitting him and running away. Those were childlike memories that I cherish so dearly. I loved my brother. Yes, he was kind hearted, soft spoken, very knowledgeable about many things and compassionate to all friends and family. He had a humble spirit.

When he married Linda he knew she was the love of his life. I remember the wedding at Mama's house. It was so special and such a wonderful memory for me. He had finally met the bride the Lord brought into his life. I cherish all my memories I had of my brother Wayne. These are just two of them.

Your Sister, Kathy
