“ Wayne and I were classmates. He carried on his dad's legacy with water well implementation by his father Mr. Soup. He learned from the best, his dad, but also knew dad was always right. He lived a carefree life. Loved a gathering which reflects from a family if 12 kids. Mr Soop said it was cheaper by the dozen. Wayne was a hard working individual and next to that he loved his beer. He enjoyed talking about our school years we had together 12 years. His mother was an awesome individual. I was friends with his sisters. I had many sleepovers. May he Rest In Peace and he's no longer in pain. God keep his family in our prayers and help them in a difficult time in this tragedy. Until we meet again continue to party dude. The life of the party❤️❤️❤️❤️
