“ I am hurt by the vague and distant obituary you have on here. I haven't forgotten the wonderful things about you. You're going to be missed dearly. You had suppers at your house where you paid, cooked, and cleaned up. Or how about the times you drank and everyone else did too. Tate it didn't work for us but my love for you as my dear friend never ended. Your brother Carl introduced us and always had that crooked smile when he saw us. (Lol). I will forever think of you when I even see Richards sausage. (Lol) Tate my heart will miss you forever nigglett..

Wayne or "Tate" WAS ONE OF A KIND. He'd give the shirt off his back. He was a wild and crazy guy and was loved by many.
