Visitation will be held on Wednesday, February 1, 2023, from 9:30 am until service time in the Chapel of Cypress Funeral Home.

Wesley was born on December 21, 1969, in Baton Rouge and he was a longtime resident of Vermilion Parish. He was a free spirit with a sweet and gentle hearted soul. Wesley never turned away anyone who needed a kind word or a place to stay. He was an imperfect son who often argued with his mother but even through their disagreements, he would always end the conversations with, "Love you Mom". Overtime, he lost his way in this world. While he struggled to find his place, he was greatly loved and will be missed by those closest to him.

Wesley is survived by his loving mother, Janet W. Gautreaux and his step-father, Dean Gautreaux; his half-sisters, Dara Broussard (Matt), and Sara Arceneaux (Derek); his nieces, Aubrey Broussard, Addyson Broussard, and Hattie Arceneaux; his aunts, Caroline Starckenberg, Joyce York (Keith), Freida Simon (Charles Hicks); as well as his uncles, Bruce Wiley (Cindy), Terry Wiley (Sandra), Greg Gautreaux (Mary).

He was preceded in death by his father, Herman J. Cutrer; his paternal grandparents, Venia and Grover H. Cutrer; his maternal grandparents, Doris and James L. Wiley; his uncles, Malk L. Wiley, J.L. Wiley, and Richard Starckenberg; as well as his step grandparents, Gloria and Clement Gautreaux.

“ I have some beautiful memories of Wesley even though I didn't know him for long. His honesty could be disarming, as he would readily admit shortcomings or faults. He would "almost" admit what must have felt like defeat, but he held back and would attempt to conquer or overcome whatever hurdle was before him. He was "true to his word", dutiful in responding when I reached out, if it was in his power. He would "show up", and was ALWAYS respectful in conversation. I have been thinking of him and now I know he is in a place of peace. Well deserved, Wesler, knowing you was so good. Talk on the other side to you brother, friend. Love to his family who I know he loved so much.
