“ I thank God for the opportunity to having met “Wild Bill” and looked forward to his calls just to ask “what ya cooking?” then proceed to tell me what I need to cook and how to cook it. I’ll miss his endless stories about his wild & crazy life, his instructions on how to be successful in business, and always end with how he missed his beloved wife and longed for the day to join her in heaven. That day has finally arrived! Fly high Mr. Bonin! Praying you are at rest in the Peace of Christ. You’ll be greatly missed and forever be remembered with ❤️

Me and Cochon as he was known by everybody joined the USMC together in 1962. After boot camp we went different ways and I didn't see him again till I came home after my time in the service . I went visit him right before he died. I told him if he didn't get out of bed he was going to die. Of course you know you couldn't tell him nothing. I think he was just tired of it all and wanted to die. I'm gonna miss him. Semper Fi brother!!
