“ I have many many memories, but my first has always been so special to me. The first time I met him I said “Hey Mr Hebert! My name is Kandis.” He looked straight at me and said, “I’m Dad, not Mr Hebert.” I knew then I had found someone special. Mom & Dad both took us under their wings since we were so far from home. We had Thanksgiving & Christmas with them. Countless hours of quality time. My heart broke when I heard the news, but I know he would just look at me and say “It’s ok, I’m with Jesus now”.

I will miss Billy's warm greeting at church and his firm handshake. I would often say to him, "Hey you old HT". He always seemed to appreciate that because he was an HT (Hull Technician) in the Navy -- a skilled mechanic and welder & essential asset onboard a ship. I always admired his upbeat attitude in the face of serious medical problems. Our prayers are with you and your family, Joan.
