“ Charlie and I are so blessed by the friendships we have shared with Tippy. He was gentle, kind, and so very loving to everyone. We've enjoyed memory-making moments while fishing at Sam Rayburn Lake, making road trips, sharing meals, or just sitting around laughing over other memories. What a joy to have Tippy in our lives! He will be truly missed!

It is with mixed feelings that I write this. Debbie, I'm so sorry for your loss. So sorry for the family that are grieving as well. Tippy was a wonderful man and you were a wonderful wife and caregiver. I love you and will never forget you and will pray for you often. However, I am so glad that Tippy is in the arms of his Savior and Lord. We will all see him soon as all of us continue to grow order.
